

MESSAGE 177
A COMPANION OF GOD (2)

1. What lesson can we learn from the fact that Moses was a companion of God being made manifest by the idolatrous people?
2. Moses' willingness to make propitiation in behalf of a people who were stiff-necked and idolatrous required a great deal of what?
3. Why did Moses not complete the statement, "And now, if You will forgive their sin"?
4. How do we know that God forgave the people?
5. How can Exodus 33 be compared with Genesis 35?
6. Why did Moses take his tent and pitch it outside the camp?
7. Which chapter in the Bible is the fulfillment of Moses' tent outside the camp as a type?
8. If we read Exodus 33:12-17 carefully, what will we see?
9. What was the "bottom line" in Moses' negotiations with the Lord?
10. In Exodus 33, what are the theological problems we have for which there is no solution?

MESSAGE 178
MOSES' STAY WITH GOD (1)

1. What do we, as New Testament believers, need to realize when we read the Old Testament?
2. Why are many things spoken of in chapter 34 a repetition of what was given earlier?
3. What does it mean to meet with the Lord in the morning?
4. What does the Lord's charge to Moses in Exodus 34:3 indicate?
5. Why is Exodus 34:29 a problem for Bible translators, and what does brother Lee conclude?
6. What indicated that it was not God's main intention in Exodus 34 to write the Ten Commandments on the two stone tablets?
7. Before God did anything, He gave Moses a warning by doing what?
8. Whatever God did for the children of Israel was for what purpose?
9. What is an idol?
10. What does the history in the Old Testament of idolatry among the children of Israel indicate about what some Christians may experience?
